

E3 CIVIC HIGH INVITES YOU TO JOIN US!

As the sole academic institution located within a library, e3 Civic High stands as a pioneering beacon of educational innovation. The co-location on the 6th and 7th floor of the San Diego Central Library has led to extensive opportunities interwoven with literature, resources, and community engagement. Register to learn about e3's foundation, unique learning model, and partnership with the public library. Find out about the potential opportunity to start a school at your library!
