Docuseek proudly announces its official launch of a Public Library collection and invites public libraries to join our pilot program designed to perfect our public library offering for public libraries around the world. This milestone marks a significant advancement in the 13-year history of Docuseek, which has exclusively focused on academic libraries.

Docuseek provides exclusive educational streaming access to more than 2,800 essential independent, social-issue and environmental films from Bullfrog Films, Icarus Films (including The Fanlight Collection and dGenerate Films), Women Make Movies, GOOD DOCS, Collective Eye Films, First Hand Films, National Film Board of Canada, First Run Features, KimStim, Kartemquin Films, MediaStorm, Scorpion TV, Terra Nova Films, Viewpoint Productions, Film Movement, Deckert Distribution, The Films of Anand Patwardhan, CinéTévé, Tecolote Films, Strange Attractions, Clarity Films, AndanaFilms, 371 Productions, Dutch CORE, Outlook, Distrib Films, Lightdox, Sudu Connexion, EPF Media, Means TV, Tikkun Olam Productions, Watermelon Pictures, Dance Camera West, Global Environmental Justice (GEJ) Documentaries and Pragda.

"Our goal for this pilot project is to have public library patrons and librarians use our platform and our public library collection, so that they can provide us with critical feedback. At Docuseek we want to know how patrons engage with our films and how librarians want to interact with the content, the data, and the most effective access and budget-aligned purchase models,” said David Parker, Head of Special Projects for Docuseek.

The Docuseek Public Library collection features more than 3,000 carefully curated, exclusive educational films from leading distributors, including Bullfrog Films, Icarus Films, Women Make Movies, GOOD DOCS, AndanaFilms, Collective Eye Films, Distrib Films, EPF Media, First Hand Films, Means TV and Pragda.

The Docuseek Public Library collection includes:

- Options to arrange showings at your library
- Nearly 100% exclusive curated content
- A predictable annual subscription fee with unlimited patron viewing
- Access options to include IP-range authentication, SSO, and proxy server configuration
